1. Achiever®

What Is Achiever?

Achievers have a constant need for attainment. They have an internal fire burning inside them. It pushes them to do and achieve more. People with strong Achiever talents feel as if every day starts at zero. By the end of the day, they must accomplish something meaningful to feel good about themselves. And “every day” means every single day: workdays, weekends, holidays and even vacations. If the day passes without some form of achievement, no matter how small, Achievers feel dissatisfied. After finishing a challenging project, they rarely seek with a reward of a rest or an easy assignment. While they appreciate recognition for past achievements, their motivation lies in striving toward the next goal on the horizon.

Why Your Achiever Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

AchieverResponsibility*Discipline*Deliberative*Restorative

By nature, you set aside time to examine past events as well as the lives of historic figures. You probably construct timelines when you need a framework within which to sort through historic evidence. You likely research topics quite thoroughly before you draw any conclusions.

Driven by your talents, you normally toil for hours to produce topnotch results. Being the very best at something is quite important to you. You have little, if any, tolerance for mediocrity, especially about the things that matter most to you.

It's very likely that you conduct yourself in a proper, ethical, legal, and upright manner to avoid feeling you have done something wrong. You truly regret making a mistake, violating a rule, breaking a trust, or producing poor results. You set high standards for yourself in various areas of your life.

Instinctively, you enjoy working on projects that demand a great deal of accuracy and precision. Your strong work ethic impels you to labor until these tasks are done right.

Chances are good that you often go out of your way to stay informed about newsworthy topics. Numerous people probably count on you to tell them about information updates, due dates, meeting changes, or special assignments.

How Achiever Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

ACHIEVER + RESPONSIBILITY

You get things done — sometimes because it feels so good and sometimes because you promised someone you would.

ACHIEVER + DISCIPLINE

You accomplish more than others because you plan your work, and then you work your plan. Your organization enhances your intensity.

ACHIEVER + DELIBERATIVE

While you work with intensity and stamina, you don't want your work to be hurried. Doing things quickly can lead to poor results.

ACHIEVER + RESTORATIVE

For you, a good day is getting everything on your to-do list done or fixing something that is broken. A great day is when you do both.

Apply Your Achiever to Succeed

Use a scoring system to keep track of all achievements.

- ☐ Display metrics that matter in a place where you can see them often. The visual measurement of your productivity will encourage you to keep making progress toward your goals.
- ☐ Put personal achievements on your scoring system. This will help you direct your busy energy toward family and friends and work.

2. Responsibility®

What Is Responsibility?

People with strong Responsibility talents take psychological ownership of anything they commit to, whether it is large or small, and they feel emotionally bound to follow it through to completion. They keep their promises and honor their commitments. They don't let people down, and they work very hard to fulfill all of their responsibilities and keep their word.

Why Your Responsibility Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

AchieverResponsibility*Discipline*Deliberative*Restorative

Driven by your talents, you might do everything possible to fulfill obligations. Maybe you are thorough and devoted to doing what you promise. This partially explains why people describe you as reliable. To some extent, you have established a reputation for honoring your commitments. Perhaps this causes individuals to trust you more than they trust others.

Because of your strengths, you experience pangs of remorse when you realize you failed to do something you promised to do. You feel awful when you do not do something correctly. You probably regret having compromised your basic values about right and wrong.

Instinctively, you are impelled to deliver on all of your commitments. You are determined to meet all of your obligations. Doing so is your badge of honor. It is one reason why people describe you as trustworthy and dependable.

It's very likely that you are a person upon whom others can depend. When you make a promise, you keep it. You feel obligated to honor your commitments. You do things correctly, accurately, and properly.

By nature, you are held in high regard because of your dependability and consistent values. You are someone upon whom others often rely. Why? You do exactly what you said you would do.

How Responsibility Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

RESPONSIBILITY + ACHIEVER

You get things done — sometimes because it feels so good and sometimes because you promised someone you would.

RESPONSIBILITY + DISCIPLINE

You love to use calendars and spreadsheets to make sure that you carry out your plans and meet your commitments to others.

RESPONSIBILITY + DELIBERATIVE

Life is serious, so you must be as well. Conscientious and vigilant, you honor your commitments and proceed with caution.

RESPONSIBILITY + RESTORATIVE

You are willing to sacrifice and serve so that something or someone broken can be mended.

Apply Your Responsibility to Succeed

Be selective about what you agree to take on.

- ☐ Choose your commitments wisely and focus on the things you genuinely enjoy doing. Prioritize your tasks so they align with your passions so you can perform at your best without feeling stressed out.
- ☐ While you have a reputation for staying true to your commitments, be sure to carefully choose your tasks to protect your wellbeing.

3. Discipline®

What Is Discipline?

People with strong Discipline talents thrive in an organized and orderly environment. They like their days to be predictable and planned, so they instinctively find ways to organize their lives. They set up routines. They focus on timelines and deadlines. They break long-term projects into a series of specific, short-term steps and follow their plan diligently. They are not necessarily neat and tidy, but they do need precision. They create order and structure where needed. Some people may label the highly disciplined as compulsive, meticulous or control freaks, but these attributes make them productive — often more so than their critics.

Why Your Discipline Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

AchieverResponsibility*Discipline*Deliberative*Restorative

By nature, you are quite capable of putting objects, files, the steps of a process, or the parts of a program in their proper order. Frequently you double check your work just to reassure yourself that everything is in its place and every detail is accurate.

Because of your strengths, you are a tactician. You anticipate what needs to be done. Usually you create an action plan to reach your goal. You outline the steps and establish the timelines. Then you execute your plan with precision.

Driven by your talents, you derive satisfaction from working with others to identify goals for individuals, yourself, or the group. You probably want everyone to agree on one process for narrowing down a number of possible objectives to a manageable few. Participating in orderly meetings that produce worthwhile results is a good use of your time. You are apt to dislike chaotic, unstructured sessions where little, if anything, is accomplished.

It's very likely that you usually want things in your life to remain clean and presentable. Keeping your home, workstation, closets, files, or drawers neat is a recurring activity. You probably devise schedules for straightening up specific areas. Often you expect the people you live and work with to care about the space you share as much as you do. Usually you want them to faithfully follow your ongoing cleaning plan.

Chances are good that you regularly establish rules or processes to handle recurring activities as well as tedious tasks. You continually reinforce the fact that no one is exempt from following standard operating procedures.

How Discipline Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

DISCIPLINE + ACHIEVER

You accomplish more than others because you plan your work, and then you work your plan. Your organization enhances your intensity.

DISCIPLINE + RESPONSIBILITY

You love to use calendars and spreadsheets to make sure that you carry out your plans and meet your commitments to others.

DISCIPLINE + DELIBERATIVE

You bring order to resources that are in your control, and you strive to anticipate risks that are beyond your control.

DISCIPLINE + RESTORATIVE

When faced with the chaos of a problem, your precision, efficiency, and organization accelerate the return to normalcy.

Apply Your Discipline to Succeed

Look for places where you can bring structure and efficiency.

- ☐ Identify places in your life, workplace or community where you can create an orderly environment. Doing this will bring you joy while supporting those around you.
- ☐ Engage in planned conversations with your most trusted friends and partners. Creating a routine with them ensures that your relationships stay strong in a constantly changing world.

4. Deliberative®

What Is Deliberative?

People with strong Deliberative talents are careful and vigilant. Everything may seem in order, but beneath the surface, they sense many risks. Rather than avoiding these hazards, they draw them out into the open so they can identify, assess and ultimately reduce each risk. Thus, those with strong Deliberative talents bring a thorough and conscientious approach to making decisions. They take care to consider options, thinking through the pros and cons of each alternative. To them, making the correct choice is more important than the time it takes to do so. They see life as something of a minefield. Others may run through it recklessly if they so choose, but those with Deliberative talents take a different approach. They identify the dangers, weigh these risks' relative effect and then place their feet deliberately. They walk with care.

Why Your Deliberative Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Achiever

Restorative

Instinctively, you refrain from sharing much about yourself with others. You are reserved by nature. You prefer to keep your thoughts to yourself. Yet, when the situation demands conversation, you can be talkative and sociable.

It's very likely that you sometimes withhold recognition until you have sufficient proof the recipient has earned it. Perhaps people appreciate your compliments because you give so few of them.

Because of your strengths, you may appear businesslike and earnest. Even so, you sometimes go out of your way to become better acquainted with individuals.

Chances are good that you may be earnest, solemn, or businesslike when circumstances require socially correct behavior. Perhaps you thoroughly study certain things before making decisions, designing plans, or taking action.

Driven by your talents, you divulge your innermost thoughts and feelings to a small, close-knit circle of confidants. With great caution, you expose your beliefs, fears, hopes, desires, failures, worries, dreams, or personal history. Understandably, you are careful to consider all circumstances and possible consequences about what you reveal.

DELIBERATIVE + DISCIPLINE

You bring order to resources that are in your control, and you strive to anticipate risks that are beyond your control.

DELIBERATIVE + RESTORATIVE

You can deal with problems if you have to, but when you anticipate a problem, you can actually prevent it from happening.

Apply Your Deliberative to Succeed

Take time to assess each situation — then act.

- ☐ Set aside time each day for yourself. Your thoughtful approach when considering options gives you the foresight to make wise decisions
- ☐ Think through the advantages and disadvantages when making important choices. To you, making the correct choice is more important than the time it takes to analyze the alternatives.

5. Restorative™

What Is Restorative?

People with strong Restorative talents love to solve problems. While some are discouraged when they encounter yet another breakdown, this energizes those with strong Restorative talents. They enjoy the challenge of analyzing symptoms, identifying what is wrong and finding the solution. They like bringing things back to life by fixing them or rekindling their vitality. In short, they bring courage and creativity to problematic situations.

Why Your Restorative Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

It's very likely that you might appreciate straightforward people who tell you the truth about yourself and what they think of you. Sometimes you have the courage to ask for and hear their responses. Perhaps you are inclined to concentrate your energy on correcting certain problems, making specific upgrades, or eliminating personal deficiencies.

By nature, you usually spend hours assessing the reasons why you failed or missed a goal. In other instances, you carefully examine why you were caught off guard by a crisis, stalled by a problem, or stymied by an obstacle. When you arm yourself with the right answers, you probably do things much better. You probably break through barriers and succeed.

Chances are good that you center your efforts on making improvements that you decide are intriguing and relevant to your life. You devote a great deal of time and energy to acquiring the knowledge and skills that you sense you lack. You regularly challenge yourself to address your shortcomings.

Driven by your talents, you search for opportunities to improve yourself. You are determined to confront your weak points and correct them.

Because of your strengths, you regularly study your mistakes. You want to understand what you must do differently in the future to succeed.

How Restorative Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

RESTORATIVE + ACHIEVER

For you, a good day is getting everything on your to-do list done or fixing something that is broken. A great day is when you do both.

RESTORATIVE + RESPONSIBILITY

You are willing to sacrifice and serve so that something or someone broken can be mended.

RESTORATIVE + DISCIPLINE

When faced with the chaos of a problem, your precision, efficiency, and organization accelerate the return to normalcy.

RESTORATIVE + DELIBERATIVE

You can deal with problems if you have to, but when you anticipate a problem, you can actually prevent it from happening.

Apply Your Restorative to Succeed

Identify simple problems with big potential for improvement.

- ☐ Volunteer to help with quick fixes for issues you notice. While a simple fix may be easy for you to see, it may be elusive to others when contending with the same problems.
- ☐ Be patient when addressing complex situations with many components. Acknowledge that fully restoring such processes can take time.
